Dear Ms. Shetler

Petitioners understand that the FCC has been swamped with paper. Besides AT&T and the Inga Companies filings the FCC also has received filings from 800 Services Inc., and CCI.

Therefore being cognizant of this fact, petitioners chose not to add even more paper to the record and just cited many of AT&T's previous positions. The cites in which petitioners did not provide the exhibits were from AT&T's comments to the FCC in 1996 and 2003, AT&T's briefs to the District Court in 2005 and 2006, AT&T's briefs to the Third Circuit in 1996, excerpts from the DC Circuit Oral argument and petitioners post oral argument brief to the DC Circuit. It would have amounted to substantially more paper.

Obviously if these cites are not exact quotes from the record you will hear from AT&T. If the Commission wishes to examine any particular cite provided by petitioners such exhibit will be provided immediately.

Petitioners therefore request that the FCC afford petitioners the same weight to quotes without the paper as the quotes with the paper.
